Our Vision

An Ireland that is committed to the safety and well-being of children, young people and families.

Our Mission

Working together to provide good quality, supportive services to achieve better outcomes for children, young people, families and communities.

LOOKING FOR A BETTER WORK LIFE BALANCE – THE WEXFORD WATERFORD AREA OFFERS YOU AN OPPORTUNITY LIKE NO OTHER.

WHY CHOOSE Waterford/Wexford AS YOUR AREA OF EMPLOYMENT & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Waterford/Wexford Social Work Teams are part of the South Region, with offices located in Waterford City, Dungarvan, Portlaw, Wexford Town, New Ross, Gorey and Enniscorthy. This unique Area in the Sunny South East has a treasure trove of interesting places to live and visit with both counties having its own distinctive historical and cultural attributes.

Why Wexford Town

Put down roots in Wexford, with affordable housing, access to great schools and colleges. After work, Wexford can be your playground. We're the cornerstone of Ireland's Ancient East, with miles of coastline, gorgeous parks and places to entertain the kids, sports, outdoor activities and great shopping, restaurants and hotels. Life in Wexford can be calm, peaceful, thrilling or luxurious – whatever you want it to be, we've got it.

Community is our passion, our people and our place. The rich tapestry of Wexford life is best lived through our sports clubs, arts, culture and local groups. We are proud of our place and there's a lot happening in Wexford to improve the well-being and quality of life of our citizens. Make use of our excellent amenities, including parks, playgrounds, outdoor gyms, swimming pools and libraries.

There's a lot going on behind the scenes to keep Wexford a clean, modern and safe place to live and raise a family in. There are exciting plans for the county over the next few years that will further strengthen our position as a great place to live and work. Our public services are the engine that keeps Wexford running smoothly and there's plenty of practical information and support available to help you settle into the groove of Wexford life.

Why Gorey

Gorey is a vibrant town in North Wexford just a one hour drive from Dublin. The town has a strong enterprise culture, thriving retail sector, and a very active local community. The surrounding landscape, including a number of excellent beaches, provides numerous leisure opportunities for locals and visitors alike. Gorey is a lively town, full of character and friendly locals.

As one of the fastest growing towns in Ireland, Gorey has so much going on, plenty of clubs and community groups to join, after-school activities for the kids, shops to browse, and places to eat. However, there are lots of places in Gorey and North Wexford to relax and unwind too, after a busy day or busy week woking in our Tusla Office.

Gorey and North Wexford offer an array of schools within the region from primary to secondary. Third Level options are also available as are evening classes! They say you never stop learning! Close to Gorey, several well-known beaches are perfect for sun seekers with miles of sand and stunning coastline. Clones Strand is a lovely beach and Ballymoney boasts not one but two beaches! Roney Point is a nice secluded beach, which is ideal for quiet walks. Not forgetting, Courtown which a well-known seaside resort in the South-East and it is a good spot for some fish and chips while walking by the sea.

Why Enniscorthy

Situated on the banks of the River Slaney and overlooked by historic Vinegar Hill, Enniscorthy is home to key attractions like Enniscorthy Castle, the County Wexford Folk Museum, and the majestic, Gothic-style St. Aidan's Cathedral. Enniscorthy is also the summer festival capital of County Wexford, while the area is renowned for its local pottery studios. Enniscorthy is the second-largest town in County Wexford. At the 2016 census, the population of the town and environs was 11,381. The town is located close to the Blackstairs Mountains and Ireland's longest beach, Curracloe.

Why New Ross

New Ross the stunning and historical medieval town in County Wexford founded by "the greatest knight that ever lived" William Marshal and his beautiful wife Isabel de Clare.

New Ross one of Irelands most historic towns was one of two towns in Ireland founded by The Norman's, and one of the Medieval Worlds most successful Ports.

The streets, rivers and lush farmland still echo with the ghosts of the Medieval Worlds most infamous characters and histories most important events.

The spectacular medieval port town of New Ross is situated on the banks of the picturesque and scenic River Barrow, which eventually meets the River Suir from Waterford, and the River Nora from Kilkenny, to form The River of the 3 Sisters.

This stunning town is at the heart of Ireland's Ancient East and is at the heart of medieval Ireland's most important historical events. It is not hard to see why the Anglo-Norman Lord William Marshal and his beautiful wife Countess Isabel De Clare founded their new port town of New Ross at this location.

Why Waterford

The City of Waterford has strong links with the Vikings. The name Waterford itself is believed to derive from the old Norse word 'Vedrarfjiordr' and in what is known as the Viking Triangle you will find a number of interesting museums; Reginald's Tower which has an exhibition that displays a superb collection of historic and archaeological artefacts, The Bishops Palace built in 1743 by renowned architect Richard Castle and the Medieval Museum which includes numerous well preserved medieval structures, including the beautiful Chorister's Hall. Before you leave Waterford city we recommend a stop at the wonderful Waterford Crystal Museum where you can see one of Ireland's most famous exports in the making. Further southeast, Dunmore East is a pleasant fishing village and popular seaside retreat. The heritage town of Lismore is also within easy reach and amongst the many interesting period buildings in the town you will find Lismore Castle and St. Carthages Cathedral.

Professional Development:

The Waterford Wexford Area is growing, developing and changing in line with Tusla National policy and plans. The area is fully implementing Signs of Safety, which is Tusla's National approach to safeguarding children and is a very exciting and rewarding approach for our staff, children and families.

Overall, it is a very exciting time to be a part of this Area and to be a part of and included in such beneficial change for children and families.

Working for Tusla in this Area in particular will give you opportunities to develop in your profession through ongoing supervision; the creation of a learning environment for you and students; development in skills sets such as IT, coaching, policy development and direct work with children to name just a few.

The Area is committed to professional development and staff wellbeing, with clear management structures in place, supportive and knowledgeable teams and enhanced access to business support.

We really look forward to hearing from you and welcoming you to working in our area, in the very sunny South East.

Social workers on their own can't change the world – but the social work function is about assisting individuals, families and communities to have more control over their lives and to fulfil their potential as human beings. Social workers can help silenced children be heard for the first time, join our team in the Wexford/Waterford Area and help us make a difference.

We will contact you mainly by mobile phone and emails to your Tusla Recruit Profile. Therefore, we recommend you specify in your application your personal mobile number and you fully complete your Tusla Recruit profile. It is your responsibility to ensure you have access to your mobile voice mails, text messages and your Tusla Recruit Profile. If you choose to use your work mobile and you do not have access to Tusla Recruit you may receive communications that have a time deadline requirement while working away or on leave. Please also ensure that you have registered your profile with an email address that you have access to inside and outside of working hours. If you use your work email and do not have access to this at all times you may miss communications and deadlines. It is your responsibility to be available for Tusla Recruit communications.

3. How will the selection process be run?

- You must complete the official application form in full on line. If you do not complete the application form in full your application may not be submitted to the selection board for consideration and subsequent interview (if applicable).
- A selection panel of senior managers will assess your application form against the eligibility criteria to see how your experience and skills match the needs of the post. The criteria for the selection exercise are based on the requirements of the post as outlined in the job specification. Therefore, it is very important that you think about your experience in light of those requirements and provide the detail requested.

There may be a number of stages of selection and short-listing or a ranking exercise may take place. Applicants who meet the eligibility criteria may be shortlisted for interview based on information supplied in the application form at the closing date or in other specified assessment process. Criteria for short listing are based on the requirements of the post as outlined in the post specific requirements, duties, skills, competencies and/or knowledge sections of the job specification and the information supplied in the competency based application form or eligibility questions, whichever is used. It is therefore very important that you think about your experience in light of those requirements and that you provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications and experience in your application. Please provide dates and details as requested.

While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, Tusla Recruit may decide that a number only will be called to interview. In this respect, Tusla Recruit provide for the employment of a short listing process to select a group for interview who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. An expert panel will examine the application forms against a predetermined criteria based on the requirements of the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates, who based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience on the application form.

• Any applicant who did not meet the eligibility criteria/ was not shortlisted will be informed f that decision and the reason why.

• Any candidate invited to interview will be given more details regarding the interview or other additional assessment stages at a later date.

The selection process may involve additional assessments, for example:

- Short listing of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application
- Online and/or paper- based assessment/tests/questionnaire(s)
- o A qualifying preliminary interview competency based
- Work sample/role play/ media exercise
- A competency based interview which may include a presentation and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate. Applicants deemed eligible, will be notified of these additional stages if applicable and may be required to attend additional assessments and interview.
- Candidates who are successful at interview may be placed on a panel (Talent Pool) in order of merit.
- We will offer the posts to the candidates with the highest scores on the panel (Talent Pool).
- Weighting may take place in situations whereby 2 or more candidates are placed in the same position on a panel (Talent Pool). The candidate with the highest score in professional knowledge will be ranked highest.
- If a candidate declines the post we will offer it to the next highest scoring candidate etc.
- Tusla Recruit must be satisfied that it has a full and comprehensive suite of references which assures it that the applicant's past performance and behaviours are appropriate to the post. Tusla Recruit determines the merit, appropriateness and relevance of references. Tusla Recruit reserves the right to remove candidates from specific recruitment panels (Talent Pools) and retract job offers if satisfactory clearances (e.g. past /current employment references, security clearances) cannot be obtained or are unsatisfactory. All previous employers may be contacted for reference purposes. Please note Tusla Recruit may retract a job offer if sufficient satisfactory references cannot be obtained in a time frame congruent with service need. Tusla Recruit reserves the right to retract a job offer should the successful candidate be unable to fulfil the provisions / criteria of the specific post in line with service need.

Please note:

Qualifications/eligibility may not be confirmed until the final stage of the process, therefore, those candidates who do not possess the essential requirements, on the date specified within the Job Specification/Candidate Information Pack, and proceed with their application are putting themselves to unnecessary effort/expense and will not be offered a position from this campaign.

Please note that, given the volume of applications, Tusla Recruit is not in a position to consider or offer advice on the qualifications/eligibility of individuals unless they come under consideration. The onus is on the candidate to ensure they fulfil the eligibility requirements set out above. Tusla Recruit reserves the right to deem an applicant ineligible at any stage if it is apparent that the candidate does not hold the required eligibility/qualifications e.g. from the submitted application form. Candidates who come under consideration following the final selection stage will be required to provide documentary evidence of their eligibility, including qualifications.

Candidates who are unable to show that they hold the required qualifications may be withdrawn from the campaign at any stage.

An invitation to tests, interview or any element of the selection process is not acceptance of eligibility.

4. Acceptance / Declination of a Job Offer

The time lines and panel management rules (i.e. how posts are offered) for each individual post will be included in the email communication sent to you for each individual post which arises and is relevant to your order of merit on the panel (Talent Pool).

Please note that any such communications will be made via the email address that you have registered your Tusla Profile with. As such please also ensure that you have registered your profile with an email address that you have access to inside and outside of working hours. If you use your work email and do not have access to this at all times you may miss communications and deadlines. It is your responsibility to be available for Tusla Recruit communications.

Please note that some appointments are also subject to internal HR sequencing arrangements and legal obligations/agreements.

5. Campaign Time Scales

The Closing date for this position is as stated in the Job Specification.

It is anticipated that interviews will be scheduled on the dates as specified in the Job Specification. Therefore, we advise that you note these dates in your diary now as due to the limited availability of the interview board it is unlikely that an alternative interview date and time can be offered. Interviews will be held in person only, therefore candidates must be available to present for interview.

6. Security Clearance

Our office will seek Garda Vetting for all of your residences in the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

All appointments will require satisfactory security clearances. If you lived in any country for 6 months or more other than the Republic of Ireland or Northern Ireland you will be required to provide security clearance for each jurisdiction in which you have resided. Your security clearance must be dated AFTER you left that country and cover the entire period of your residence. Seeking security clearances from other countries (e.g. UK, USA etc) are the responsibility of the candidate. It is a process which can take an amount of time. Therefore if you are interested in pursuing a career with Tusla we would strongly advise that you commence seeking international security clearances now. Please see Appendix 2 for more information on international clearances.

Please note if you require overseas security clearance and are unable to produce it at the time of job offer then the job offer may be withdrawn.

7. Commission for Public Service Appointments – Codes of Practice

Appointments in Tusla are made under a recruitment license and are subject to Codes of Practice established by the Commission for Public Service Appointments (CPSA). Under the Codes of Practice candidates are entitled to request a review of any part of the appointment process or make a complaint regarding any part of the process that they feel is unfair or has been applied unfairly to them.

Candidates are entitled to one of two forms of review procedure which are mutually exclusive - a Section 7 review or a Section 8 complaint. Before submitting a request for review candidates should determine which procedure is appropriate to their particular circumstances.

The procedures allow for matters to be resolved on an informal basis and candidates are advised to avail of the informal process before making use of the formal review procedure. Candidates should in the first instance make an informal request for review to the Tusla Recruit Campaign Manager via tuslarecruit@tusla.ie. Please note that informal reviews prior to interview must be requested within 2 working days of receipt of a decision. Informal appeals after interview must be requested within 5 working days of notification of a decision.

Please note:

A Candidate who is simply seeking clarification on the basis for the decision reached about their candidature should obtain this feedback from the Tusla Recruit Campaign Manager. They do not need to invoke any of the procedures referred to above. Such feedback will be properly managed by the Tusla Recruit Campaign Manager as an integral part of the appointment process.

In addition The Public Services Management (Recruitment and Selection) Act 2004 makes very specific provisions in relation to the responsibilities placed on candidates who participate in recruitment campaigns and these are detailed in Section 5 and Section 9 of the Code of Practise under the Act.

These obligations are as follows:

Section 5

Any canvassing by or on behalf of candidates shall result in disqualification and exclusion from the recruitment process. Candidates shall not:

- Impersonate a candidate at any stage of the process
- Knowingly or maliciously obstruct or interfere with the recruitment process
- Knowingly and without lawful authority take any action that could result in the compromising of any test material or any evaluation of it
- Interfere with or compromise the process in any way

Any person who contravenes the above provisions, or who assists another person in contravening the above provisions, shall be guilty of an offence and it is the policy of Tusla to report any such above contraventions to An Garda Siochana.

In addition, where a person found guilty of an offence was or is a candidate at a recruitment/selection process, then, in accordance with the Public Services Management (Recruitment and Selection) Act 2004:

- Where s/he has not been appointed to a post, s/he shall be disqualified as a candidate and;
- Where s/he has been appointed as a result of that process, s/he shall forfeit that appointment.

Section 9

Any unreasonable conduct by the candidate may result in their contact being restricted.

Candidates shall not display the following types of behaviour which the Commission considers

'Unreasonable Conduct':

- Unreasonable persistence
- Unreasonable lack of cooperation
- Unreasonable arguments
- Unreasonable behaviour

Examples of Unreasonable Conduct include:

- Insisting that an issue be reviewed again by another officer.
- Expecting immediate responses to requests or communications.
- Insisting their version of events be accepted as fact where there is no objective evidence to support this.
- Impolite or aggressive conduct.

The decision to restrict access may include:

- Requesting the individual make contact in a particular form, for example by letter only.
- Requiring contact to take place with a named officer only.
- Restricting telephone calls from the individual to specified days and timeframes.
- Restricting telephone calls from the individual to specified days and timeframes.
- Restricting telephone calls from the individual to specified days and timeframes.
- Restricting access to the offices of an organisation.
- Asking the customer to enter into an agreement about their future conduct.
- Refusal to pursue a complaint or request for a review.
- Terminating all contact with the complainant.

We encourage you to visit www.cpsa.ie for further information on the Code of Practice.

General Declaration

It is important that you read this Declaration carefully and then sign it in the space below.

Part 1:

Obligations Placed on Candidates who participate in The Recruitment Process.

The Public Services Management (Recruitment and Selection) Act 2004 makes very specific provisions in relation to the responsibilities placed on candidates who participate in recruitment campaigns and these are detailed in Section 5 and Section 9 of the Code of Practise under the Act.

These obligations are as follows:

Section 5

Any canvassing by or on behalf of candidates shall result in disqualification and exclusion from the recruitment process. Candidates shall not:

- Knowingly or recklessly make a false or a misleading application
- Knowingly or recklessly provide false information or documentation
- Canvass any person with or without inducements

- Impersonate a candidate at any stage of the process
- Knowingly or maliciously obstruct or interfere with the recruitment process
- Knowingly and without lawful authority take any action that could result in the compromising of any test material or any evaluation of it
- Interfere with or compromise the process in any way

Any person who contravenes the above provisions, or who assists another person in contravening the above provisions, shall be guilty of an offence.

It is the policy of Tusla to report any such above contraventions to An Garda Siochana.

In addition, where a person found guilty of an offence was or is a candidate at a recruitment/selection process, then, in accordance with the Public Services Management (Recruitment and Selection) Act 2004:

- Where s/he has not been appointed to a post, s/he shall be disqualified as a candidate and;
- Where s/he has been appointed as a result of that process, s/he shall forfeit that appointment

Section 9

Any unreasonable conduct by the candidate may result in their contact being restricted. Candidates shall not display the following types of behaviour which the Commission considers 'Unreasonable Conduct':

- Unreasonable persistence
- Unreasonable lack of cooperation
- Unreasonable arguments
- Unreasonable behaviour

Part 2:

Declaration: 'I declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief there is nothing in relation to my conduct, character or personal background of any nature that would adversely affect the position of trust in which I would be placed by virtue of my appointment to this position. I hereby confirm my irrevocable consent to the Child and Family Agency to the making of such enquiries, as the Child and Family Agency deems necessary in respect of my suitability for the post in respect of which this application is made.

I hereby accept and confirm the entitlement of the Child and Family Agency to reject my application or terminate my employment (in the event of a contract of employment having been entered into) if I have omitted to furnish the Child and Family Agency with any information relevant to my application or to my continued employment with the Child and Family Agency or where I have made any false statement or misrepresentation relevant to this application or my continuing employment with the Health Service.

Furthermore, I hereby declare that all the particulars furnished in connection with this application are true, and that I am aware of the qualifications and particulars for this position. I understand that I may be required to submit documentary evidence in support of any particulars given by me on my Application Form. I understand that any false or misleading information submitted by me will render me liable to automatic disqualification or render me liable to dismissal, if employed.'

Failure to sign application will render it invalid.*

(Candidate Name) Date:_____

*Important: If you are submitting your application via Tusla Recruit online we will accept the Declaration unsigned once you have confirmed understanding of the document via the system process but you will be required to sign the Declaration at interview should you be invited to attend.
